TRINITY COUNCIL.

The Change of Meeting Night Makes No Difference in Attendance.

There was a large attendance at the meeting of Trinity Council on Tuesday night and the change from Monday seems to make no difference.
The session was a large one and quite an amount of business was transacted.
Joseph Conkling and Edward Bosler were installed as President and Vice President respectively, as were also Jerry Driscoll and Joe Bell, the former Secretary and the latter as members of the Executive Committee. Both were elected to fill vacancies caused by resignations.
President Conkling delivered his inaugural address, declaring it to be his intention to make everybody his friend and give Trinity an administration not surpassed by any in its history. Special effort will be made to push the work on the new club house, and while it may not be entirely completed the members will be satisfied with the advancement made.

An election was held to select delegates to the Catholic Federation, the following being declared the choice of the council: James B. Kelly, William Hillerich, Edward Kelly and T. J. Garvey. Committees will be named next Tuesday night and plans formulated for work for the members during the spring and summer months.

VERY BUSY

Was the Limerick Ladies' Auxiliary at Last Meeting.

The newly organized Hibernian Ladies' Auxiliary had a busy night when they met last week in Bertrand Hall on Sixth street. Besides obligating four new members they received thirteen applications, and amid much enthusiasm the handsomer draped new charter was assigned a conspicuous place over the President's rostrum. After the regular order of business was gone through there was an election of officers, when the following were elected to serve for the year 1907:

President—Mrs. Anna Nevin Cunningham.
Vice President—Mrs. Edward Stone.
Recording Secretary—Miss Katie Clark.
Financial Secretary—Miss Mayme Riley.

Treasurer—Miss Margaret Grogan.
All were installed and the new officers pledged their earnest efforts to make their division the equal of any in the State. The ladies meet again next Friday night in Bertrand Hall, and any officers or members from Division I or the County Board will be cordially welcomed.

PASTIME DRILL COMPANY.

The night of nights for the members of the Pastime Drill Company and their lady friends draws nigh, and elaborate preparations have been made for the grand prize euchre which they will give in their hall at Seventeenth and Southgate streets on Wednesday night, January 25. Judging from the number of tickets already disposed of its financial success and brilliancy is positively assured. Col. Theo. Poppe, Capt. Joe Breen and the officers and members have exerted themselves to the utmost for the past month and feel assured of the complete success and glory of the affair. The arrangements for the night are in the hands of ladies and gentlemen experienced in the art of entertaining, and every one who will attend may rest assured that they will go home well satisfied with the Pastime Drill Company's hospitality.

RAN OVER BOY.

Last Saturday afternoon while about thirty young boys were engaged in a game of roller polo on Breckinridge street, between Brook and Floyd, a delivery wagon was recklessly driven into the crowd. Almost miraculously all escaped except Barry Meehan, the thirteen-year-old son of William T. Meehan, of the Klaber art store, who was run over. The little fellow was picked up by his playmates and removed to his home, 1125 Floyd street, and a physician summoned. His injuries were found to be painful, but fortunately are not serious, and the boy will probably be able to return to school by Monday.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

Late News That Will Interest Members Here and Elsewhere.

Tomorrow a council will be installed at Corpus Christie, Texas.

The Rev. F. X. Dutton, Chancellor of the Cincinnati diocese, was an active member of Cincinnati Council.
His enthusiasm and interest in the work of the order was boundless, and his loss will be keenly felt.

The Knights of Allegheny county have voted to support the Juvenile Court work in Pittsburgh by direct payment from the various council treasuries, thereby assuring ample financial aid and also distributing the burden of the work.

Under the auspices of Trenton Council ninety-eight candidates were received into the order at the last initiation. The new members include twenty representative men who compose the charter membership of the council to be established at Princeton, N. J.

Chattanooga Knights have purchased the building and realty holdings of the Catholic Knights of America in that city, paying therefor $20,000. The property came into the possession of the Catholic Knights in lieu of cash that should have been in the hands of a former Supreme Treasurer. Both orders will benefit from the sale.

AMUSEMENTS.

The well known spectacle, "The Black Crook," comes to the Masonic next week, opening on Monday evening. It is Max Plohn, of Louisville, who brings the production here, and it is said to be a most elaborate and picturesque revival, tuneful music and a host of pretty girls.

The Buckingham will next week present the popular aggregation of talent traveling as "Miss New York Jr.," in two amusing burlesques. In the company are high class comedians, and with dainty music, beautiful costumes and superb stage setting the engagement should attract big audiences.

Many good things are promised the patrons at the Hopkins Theater next week. Those on the bill are the Pekin Zouaves, Martin's Dogs and monkeys, Finlay and Burke, the Three Roses, the Damm Bros., Max Hildebrandt and Violet Dale, some of the best acts in vaudeville are included in this list.

Lillian Russell will be seen at Macaulay's the first three nights of next week in "The Butterfly." Tim Murphy will return and on Thursday night will present his great comedy success, "A Corner in Coffee." Friday and Saturday, with matinee, Miss Henrietta Crossman will be the attraction, producing her newest comedy, "All-of-a-Sudden Peggy."

WELCOME FOR FRIENDS.

Peter Riley, a well known young man of the West End and a son of Police Capt. Tom Riley, will next week embark in business for himself at the corner of Twenty-second and Duncan streets, where a visit from his friends will be appreciated.

ENJOYING VACATION.

Though the weather is not the best for vacations members of the police force have been "getting theirs".
Patrolmen William Gannon, Dan Tivnan, Mike O'Hare, Con O'Leary and William Conliffe will return to their posts today after a rest of ten days. Next week Tom McGoff, John Kelly, John Barrett, Dan Rafferty and Robert Cummings will view the world in citizens clothes and seek both rest and enjoyment from different points.

ELECT AT PARIS.

Hibernians Find Themselves in Better Shape Than Ever.

At the annual meeting of Division 1, A. O. H., of Paris, the reports showed that the past year had been a prosperous one. Notwithstanding the heavy expense to which the division had gone to entertain the State convention the surplus remaining in the treasury was larger than that a year ago, and there had also been a steady gain in membership.
This division embraces all the representative Irishmen of Bourbon county, and is now in better shape than ever before. The officers elected for the ensuing year are all well known residents of Paris, and all indications point to another most successful year. They are as follows:

County President—R. C. Gorey.
President—B. J. Brannon.
Vice President—P. J. Kane.
Treasurer—Malachy Flanagan.
Financial Secretary—T. C. Linehan.
Recording Secretary—William Grannan.

Sergeant-at-Arms—John Mullanv.
Sentinel—Joe Higgins.
Paris also has a strong and flourishing Ladies' Auxiliary, and both bodies will endeavor to have P. J.
Haltigan visit their city if arrangements can be made to bring that gentleman to Louisville.

OWENSBORO.

Knights of Columbus Increasing Membership in That Section.

No council of the Knights of Columbus is doing more earnest work than that at Owensboro, which installed its officers Tuesday night.
Since its organization Owensboro Council has made wonderful progress, and it now includes in its membership nearly every representative Catholic man in that section. Tomorrow this council will confer the first degree on a large class at Can-nelton, and the second degree on another class at Morganfield on Sunday, January 20.

The installation ceremonies were conducted by District Deputy J. T.
Donovan and State Warden George F. Welkel, of Paducah, and the following will govern for the coming year: The Rev. George M. Connor, Chaplain; LaVega Clements, Grand Knight; Dr. H. K. Osburn, Deputy Grand Knight; Hon. R. W. Slack, Chancellor; F. A. Roby, Lecturer; J.
C. O'Bryan, Warden; William Dan-hauer, Treasurer; Thomas H. Manning, Financial Secretary; Fred Arnold, Recording Secretary.

WITHOUT WARNING.

News of the sudden and unexpected death of William Murphy, the well known grocer at 2401 Duncan street, was learned with sincere regret by a very large circle of friends and acquaintances. Last week the sale of his grocery took place and the excitement and overwork attendant thereto must have upset him somewhat. Sunday afternoon he complained of feeling unwell, and at 4 o'clock he called for Father Brady and a physician, and despite all they could do he passed peacefully away at 6 o'clock, fortified by the rites of his holy religion. Murphy was unmarried, but leaves a number of relatives in this city. His funeral took place Tuesday morning from St. Cecilia's church. Rev. Father Brady celebrating the solemn mass of requiem.

YOUNGEST PRESIDENT.

The very Rev. Michael S. Ryan, the new President of Kenrick Seminary in St. Louis, is the youngest President that institution ever had, if not the youngest in the country, being only thirty years old. Father Ryan will be remembered by many whom he met in this city a few years ago when he visited his relatives, the Raidys, on West Main street, just before assuming the Presidency of the college at New Orleans.
